

ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES (A.R.S.)

ARTICLE 4. INTERSTATE COMPACT FOR THE SUPERVISION OF PAROLEES AND PROBATIONERS

§ 31-461. Compact; authorization; contents; effect

The governor is authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of the state of Arizona with any of the United States lawfully joining therein in form substantially as follows:

A COMPACT

Entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled "An act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

1. That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state"), while on probation or parole, if:

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there.

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person. A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

2. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

3. That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states parties hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, unless at the time a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, in which case he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

4. That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.

5. That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

6. That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying. When ratified it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state.

7. That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each ratifying state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto.

§ 31-466. Supervision fee

A. A person being supervised in this state pursuant to this article shall pay, as a condition of probation or parole, a monthly supervision fee of not less than fifty dollars unless, after determining the inability of the person to pay the fee, the supervising agency requires payment of a lesser amount. The supervising parole or probation officer shall monitor the collection of the fee.

B. Seventy per cent of the monies collected pursuant to subsection A of this section shall be deposited, pursuant to sections 35-146 and 35-147, in the victim compensation and assistance fund established by section 41-2407 and thirty per cent shall be deposited in the adult probation services fund established by section 12-267.

ARTICLE 4.1 INTERSTATE COMPACT FOR THE SUPERVISION OF ADULT OFFENDERS

§ 31-467. Adoption of interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders

The governor is authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of the state of Arizona with any of the United States lawfully joined in the compact in a form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE

Purpose

A. Arizona and the compacting states to this interstate compact recognize that each state is responsible for the supervision of adult offenders in the community who are authorized pursuant to the bylaws and rules of this compact to travel across state lines both to and from each compacting state in such a manner as to track the location of offenders, transfer supervision authority in an orderly and efficient manner and when necessary return offenders to the originating jurisdictions. The compacting states also recognize that congress, by enacting the crime control act, 4 United States Code section 112 (1965), has authorized and encouraged compacts for cooperative efforts and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime.

B. It is the purpose of this compact and the interstate commission created under this compact, through means of joint and cooperative action among the compacting states to do all of the following:

1. Provide the framework for the promotion of public safety and protect the rights of victims through the control and regulation of the interstate movement of offenders in the community.
2. Provide for the effective tracking, supervision and rehabilitation of these offenders by the sending and receiving states.
3. Equitably distribute the costs, benefits and obligations of the compact among the compacting states.

C. In addition, this compact will do all of the following:

1. Create an interstate commission that will establish uniform procedures to manage the movement between states of adults placed under community supervision and released to the community under the jurisdiction of courts, paroling authorities, corrections or other criminal justice agencies that will promulgate rules to achieve the purpose of this compact.
2. Ensure an opportunity for input and timely notice to victims and to jurisdictions where defined offenders are authorized to travel or to relocate across state lines.
3. Establish a system of uniform data collection, access to information on active cases by authorized criminal justice officials and regular reporting of compact activities to heads of state councils, state executive, judicial and legislative branches and criminal justice administrators.
4. Monitor compliance with rules governing interstate movement of offenders and initiate interventions to address and correct noncompliance.
5. Coordinate training and education regarding regulations of interstate movement of offenders for officials involved in such activity.

D. The compacting states recognize that there is no right of any offender to live in another state and that duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and apprehend and retake any offender under supervision subject to the provisions of this compact and bylaws and rules promulgated under this compact.

E. Compacting states recognize no offender may live in another state when acceptance criteria that has been established or adopted by the compacting state has not been met. It is the policy of the compacting states that the activities conducted by the interstate commission created in this compact are the formation of public policies and are therefore public business.

ARTICLE I

Definitions

A. As used in this compact, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Adult” means both individuals legally classified as adults and juveniles treated as adults by court order, statute or operation of law.

2. “Bylaws” means those bylaws established by the interstate commission for its governance, or for directing or controlling the interstate commission’s actions or conduct.

3. “Compact administrator” means the director of the Arizona department of corrections, who is responsible for the administration and management of Arizona’s supervision and transfer of offenders subject to the terms of this compact, the rules adopted by the interstate commission and policies adopted by the state council under this compact.

4. “Compacting state” means any state that has enacted the enabling legislation for this compact.

5. “Commissioner” means the voting representative of each compacting state appointed pursuant to article IV of this compact.

6. “Interstate commission” means the interstate commission for adult offender supervision established by this compact.

7. “Member” means the commissioner of a compacting state or the commissioner’s designee, who shall be a person officially connected with the commissioner.

8. “Non-compacting state” means any state that has not enacted the enabling legislation for this compact.

9. “Offender” means an adult placed under, or subject to, supervision as the result of the commission of a criminal offense and released to the community under the jurisdiction of courts, paroling authorities, corrections or other criminal justice agencies.

10. “Person” means any individual, corporation, business enterprise, or other legal entity, either public or private.

11. “Rules” means acts of the interstate commission, duly promulgated pursuant to article VIII of this compact, substantially affecting interested parties in addition to the interstate commission, which shall have the force and effect of law in the compacting states.

12. “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia and any other territorial possessions of the United States.

13. “State council” means the resident members of the state council for interstate adult offender supervision created by each state under article IV of this compact.

ARTICLE III

The Compact Commission

A. This compact creates the interstate commission for adult offender supervision. The interstate commission shall be a body corporate and joint agency of the compacting states. The interstate commission shall have all the responsibilities, powers and duties set forth in the compact, including the power to sue and be sued, and additional powers conferred on it by subsequent action of the respective legislatures of the compacting states in accordance with the terms of this compact. The interstate commission shall consist of commissioners selected and appointed by resident members of a state council for interstate adult offender supervision for each state. In addition to the commissioners who are the voting representatives of each state, the interstate commission shall include individuals who are not commissioners but who are members of interested organizations. The noncommissioner members must include a member of the national organizations of governors, legislators, state chief justices, attorneys general and crime victims. All noncommissioner members of the interstate commission shall be ex-officio, nonvoting members. The interstate commission may provide in its bylaws for any additional, ex-officio, nonvoting members it deems necessary.

B. Each compacting state represented at any meeting of the interstate commission is entitled to one vote. A majority of the compacting states shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger quorum is required by the bylaws of the interstate commission. The interstate commission shall meet at least once each calendar year. The chairperson may call additional meetings and, on the request of twenty-seven or more compacting states, shall call additional meetings. Public notice shall be given of all meetings and meetings shall be open to the public.

C. The interstate commission shall establish an executive committee that includes commission officers, members and others that are determined by the bylaws. The executive committee may act on behalf of the interstate commission during periods when the interstate commission is not in session, with the exception of rule making or amendment to the compact. The executive committee oversees the day-to-day activities managed by the executive director and interstate commission staff, administers enforcement and compliance with the provisions of the compact, its bylaws and as directed by the interstate commission and performs other duties as directed by the commission or set forth in the bylaws.

ARTICLE IV

The State Council

A. Arizona shall create a state council for interstate adult offender supervision that is responsible for the appointment of the commissioner who shall serve on the interstate commission from Arizona. The commissioner shall be the compact administrator or designee.

B. The membership of the state council shall include one legislator who is appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, one legislator who is appointed by the president of the senate, one victim's advocate who is appointed by the governor, the deputy compact administrator of the state department of corrections who is appointed by the director of the department of corrections, the deputy compact administrator of the administrative office of the courts who is appointed by the director of the administrative office of the courts, one judge who is appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court, one sheriff appointed by the Arizona sheriff's association and any other members determined by the state council.

C. The state council shall exercise oversight and advocacy concerning Arizona's participation in interstate commission activities and other duties as determined by the council's members including the development of policy concerning operations and procedures of the compact within Arizona.

ARTICLE V

Powers And Duties Of The Interstate Commission

The interstate commission shall have the following powers and duties:

1. To adopt a seal and suitable bylaws governing the management and operation of the interstate commission.
2. To promulgate rules and take action consistent with this compact.
3. To oversee, supervise and coordinate the interstate movement of offenders subject to the terms of this compact and any bylaws adopted and rules promulgated by the interstate commission.
4. To enforce compliance with compact provisions, interstate commission rules and bylaws, using all necessary and proper means, including judicial process.
5. To establish and maintain offices.
6. To purchase and maintain insurance bonds.

7. To borrow, accept or contract for services of personnel, including members and members' staffs.

8. To establish and appoint committees and hire staff it deems necessary to carry out its functions including, an executive committee as required by article III that may act on behalf of the interstate commission in carrying out its powers and duties under this compact.

9. To elect or appoint such officers, attorneys, employees, agents or consultants, and to fix their compensation, define their duties and determine their qualifications and to establish the interstate commission's personnel policies and programs relating to, among other things, conflicts of interest, rates of compensation and qualifications of personnel.

10. To accept any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services and to receive, utilize and dispose of them.

11. To lease, purchase, accept contributions or donations of, or otherwise to own, hold, improve or use any property, real, personal or mixed.

12. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, abandon or otherwise dispose of any property, real, personal or mixed.

13. To establish a budget and make expenditures and levy dues as provided in article X of this compact.

14. To sue and be sued.

15. To provide for dispute resolution among compacting states.

16. To perform functions necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this compact.

17. To report annually to the legislatures, governors, judiciary and state councils of the compacting states concerning the activities of the interstate commission during the preceding year. The reports shall also include any recommendations that may have been adopted by the interstate commission.

18. To coordinate education, training and public awareness regarding the interstate movement of offenders for officials involved in such activity.

19. To establish uniform standards for the reporting, collecting and exchanging of data.

ARTICLE VI

Organization And Operation Of The Interstate Commission

A. The interstate commission shall, by a majority vote of the members, within twelve months of the first interstate commission meeting, adopt bylaws to govern its conduct necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of the compact, including:

1. Establishing the fiscal year of the interstate commission.
2. Establishing an executive committee and other necessary committees.
3. Providing reasonable standards and procedures:
  - (a) for the establishment of committees, and
  - (b) governing any general or specific delegation of any authority or function of the interstate commission.
4. Providing reasonable procedures for calling and conducting meetings of the interstate commission.
5. Establishing the titles and responsibilities of the officers of the interstate commission.
6. Providing reasonable standards and procedures for the establishment of the personnel policies and programs of the interstate commission. Notwithstanding any civil service or other similar laws of any compacting state, the bylaws shall exclusively govern the personnel policies and programs of the interstate commission.
7. Providing a mechanism for winding up the operations of the interstate commission and the equitable return of any surplus funds that exist on the termination of the compact after paying or reserving all of its debts and obligations.
8. Providing transition rules for start up administration of the compact.
9. Establishing standards and procedures for compliance and technical assistance in carrying out the compact.

B. The interstate commission shall, by a majority vote of the members, elect from among its members a chairperson and a vice-chairperson, each of whom shall have the powers and duties specified in the bylaws. The chairperson or, in the chairperson's absence or disability, the vice-chairperson, shall preside at all meetings of the interstate commission, the officers elected shall serve without compensation or remuneration from the interstate commission. Subject to the availability of budgeted funds, the officers shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties and responsibilities as officers of the interstate commission. The interstate commission shall, through its executive committee, appoint or retain an executive director for such period, on terms and conditions and for compensation the interstate commission deems appropriate. The executive director shall serve as secretary to the interstate commission, and hire and supervise other staff authorized by the interstate commission, but shall not be a member.

C. The interstate commission shall maintain its corporate books and records in accordance with the bylaws.

D. The members, officers, executive director and employees of the interstate commission shall be immune from suit and liability, either personally or in their official capacity, for any claim for damage to or loss of property or personal injury or other civil liability caused or arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties or responsibilities. This subsection shall not be construed to protect any person from suit or liability for any damage, loss, injury or liability caused by the intentional or willful and wanton misconduct of any person. The interstate commission shall defend the commissioner of a compacting state, or his or her representatives or employees, or the interstate commission's representatives or employees, in any civil action seeking to impose liability, arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties or responsibilities, or that the defendant had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties or responsibilities, if the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from intentional wrongdoing on the part of the person. The interstate commission shall indemnify and hold the commissioner of a compacting state, the appointed designee or employee, or the interstate commission's representatives or employees, harmless in the amount of any settlement or judgment obtained against such persons arising out of any actual or alleged act, error or omission that occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties or responsibilities, or that such persons had a reasonable basis for believing occurred within the scope of interstate commission employment, duties or responsibilities, provided that the actual or alleged act, error or omission did not result from gross negligence or intentional wrongdoing on the part of the person.

ARTICLE VII

Activities Of The Interstate Commission

A. The interstate commission shall meet and take actions consistent with the provisions of this compact.

B. Except as otherwise provided in this compact and unless a greater percentage is required by the bylaws, in order to constitute an act of the interstate commission, the act must be taken at a meeting of the interstate commission and must receive an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present.

C. Each member of the interstate commission has the right and power to cast a vote to which that compacting state is entitled and to participate in the business and affairs of the interstate commission. A member shall vote in person on behalf of the state and shall not delegate a vote to another member state. However, a state council shall appoint another authorized representative, in the absence of the commissioner from that state, to cast a vote on behalf of the member state at a specified meeting. The bylaws may provide for members' participation in meetings by telephone or other means of telecommunication or electronic communication. Any voting conducted by telephone, or other means of telecommunication or electronic communications, is subject to the same quorum requirements of meetings at which members are present in person.

D. The interstate commission shall meet at least once during each calendar year. The chairperson of the interstate commission may call additional meetings at any time and, on the request of a majority of the members, shall call additional meetings.

E. The interstate commission's bylaws shall establish conditions and procedures under which the interstate commission shall make its information and official records available to the public for inspection or copying. The interstate commission may exempt from disclosure any information or official records to the extent they would adversely affect personal privacy rights or proprietary interests. In promulgating the rules, the interstate commission may make available to law enforcement agencies records and information otherwise exempt from disclosure, and may enter into agreements with law enforcement agencies to receive or exchange information or records subject to nondisclosure and confidentiality provisions.

F. Public notice shall be given of all meetings and all meetings shall be open to the public, except as set forth in the rules or as otherwise provided in the compact. The interstate commission shall promulgate rules consistent with the principles contained in the government in sunshine act (5 United States code section 552b). The interstate commission and any of its committees may close a meeting to the public if it determines by two-thirds vote that an open meeting would be likely to:

1. Relate solely to the interstate commission's internal personnel practices and procedures.
2. Disclose matters specifically exempted from disclosure by statute.
3. Disclose trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential.
4. Involve accusing any person of a crime, or formally censuring any person.
5. Disclose information of a personal nature if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
6. Disclose investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes.
7. Disclose information contained in or related to examination, operating or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of or for the use of, the interstate commission with respect to a regulated entity for the purpose of regulation or supervision of the entity.
8. Disclose information, the premature disclosure of which would significantly endanger the life of a person or the stability of a regulated entity.

9. Specifically relate to the interstate commission's issuance of a subpoena or its participation in a civil action or proceeding.

G. For every meeting closed pursuant to subsection F, the interstate commission's chief legal officer shall publicly certify that, in the legal officer's opinion, the meeting may be closed to the public and shall reference each relevant exemptive provision. The interstate commission shall keep minutes that shall fully and clearly describe all matters discussed in any meeting and shall provide a full and accurate summary of any actions taken, and the reasons for the actions taken, including a description of each of the views expressed on any item and the record of any roll call vote, reflected in the vote of each member on the question. All documents considered in connection with any action shall be identified in the minutes. The interstate commission shall collect standardized data concerning the interstate movement of offenders as directed through its bylaws and rules that specify the data to be collected, the means of collection and data exchange and reporting requirements.

ARTICLE VIII

Rule Making Functions Of The Interstate Commission

A. The interstate commission shall promulgate rules to effectively and efficiently achieve the purposes of the compact including transition rules governing administration of the compact during the period in which it is being considered and enacted by the states. Rule making shall occur pursuant to the criteria set forth in this article and the bylaws and rules adopted pursuant to this article. The rule making shall substantially conform to the principles of the federal administrative procedure act, 5 U.S.C.S. section 551 et seq., and the federal advisory committee act, 5 U.S.C.S. app. 2, section 1 et seq., as may be amended. All rules and amendments are binding on the date specified in each rule or amendment.

B. If a majority of the legislatures of the compacting states rejects a rule, by enactment of a statute or resolution in the same manner used to adopt the compact, then the rule has no further force and effect in any compacting state.

C. When promulgating a rule, the interstate commission shall:

1. Publish the proposed rule stating with particularity the text of the rule that is proposed and the reason for the proposed rule.

2. Allow persons to submit written data, facts, opinions and arguments, which shall be publicly available.

3. Provide for opportunity for an informal hearing.

4. Promulgate a final rule and its effective date, if appropriate, based on the rule making record.

D. Not later than sixty days after a rule is promulgated, any interested person may file a petition in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or in the federal district court where the interstate commission's principal office is located for judicial review of the rule. If the court finds that the interstate commission's action is not supported by substantial evidence as defined in the federal administrative procedure act, in the rule making record, the court shall hold the rule unlawful and set it aside. Subjects to be addressed within twelve months after the first meeting must at a minimum include:

1. Notice to victims and opportunity to be heard.
2. Offender registration and compliance.
3. Violations and returns.
4. Transfer procedures and forms.
5. Eligibility for transfer.
6. Collection of restitution and fees from offenders.
7. Data collection and reporting.
8. The level of supervision to be provided by the receiving state.
9. Transition rules governing the operation of the compact and the interstate commission during all or part of the period between the effective date of the compact and the date on which the last eligible state adopts the compact.
10. Mediation, arbitration and dispute resolution.

E. The existing rules governing the operation of the previous compact superseded by this act shall be null and void twelve months after the first meeting of the interstate commission created under this compact.

F. On determination by the interstate commission that an emergency exists, it may promulgate an emergency rule that is effective immediately on adoption, provided that the usual rule making procedures provided hereunder shall be retroactively applied to said rule as soon as reasonably possible, in no event later than ninety days after the effective date of the rule.

ARTICLE IX

Oversight, Enforcement And Dispute Resolution By The Interstate Commission

- A. The interstate commission shall oversee the interstate movement of adult offenders in the compacting states and shall monitor such activities being administered in noncompacting states that significantly affect compacting states. The courts and executive agencies in each compacting state shall enforce this compact and shall take all actions necessary and appropriate to effectuate the compact's purposes and intent. In any judicial or administrative proceeding in a compacting state pertaining to the subject matter in this compact that may affect the powers, responsibilities or actions of the interstate commission, the interstate commission is entitled to receive all service of process in any such proceeding, and shall have standing to intervene in the proceeding for all purposes.

B. The compacting states shall report to the interstate commission on issues or activities of concern to them and cooperate with and support the interstate commission in the discharge of its duties and responsibilities. The interstate commission shall attempt to resolve any disputes or other issues that are subject to the compact and that may arise among compacting states and noncompacting states. The interstate commission shall enact bylaws or promulgate a rule providing for both mediation and binding dispute resolution for disputes among the compacting states.

C. The interstate commission, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, shall enforce the provisions of this compact using any or all means set forth in article XII, subsection B of this compact.

ARTICLE X

Finance

A. The interstate commission shall pay or provide for the payment of the reasonable expenses of its establishment, organization and ongoing activities.

B. The interstate commission shall levy on and collect an annual assessment from each compacting state to cover the cost of the internal operations and activities of the interstate commission and its staff that must be in a total amount sufficient to cover the interstate commission's annual budget as approved each year. The aggregate annual assessment amount shall be allocated based on a formula to be determined by the interstate commission, taking into consideration the population of the state and the volume of interstate movement of offenders in each compacting state and shall promulgate a rule binding on all compacting states that governs the assessment. Arizona's assessment shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per year unless approved by the state council and appropriated by the legislature.

C. The interstate commission shall not incur any obligations of any kind before securing the funds adequate to meet the obligations and shall not pledge the credit of any of the compacting states, except by and with the authority of the compacting state.

D. The interstate commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the interstate commission are subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the interstate commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the interstate commission.

ARTICLE XI

Compacting States, Effective Date And Amendments

A. Any state, as defined in article II of this compact, is eligible to become a compacting state. The compact shall become effective and binding on legislative enactment of the compact into law by no less than thirty-five states. The initial effective date shall be the later of July 1, 2001, or on enactment into law by the thirty-fifth state. Thereafter it is effective and binding, as to any other compacting state, on enactment of the compact into law by that state. The governor's of nonmember states or their designees shall be invited to participate in interstate commission activities on a nonvoting basis before adoption of the compact by all states and territories of the United States.

B. Amendments to the compact may be proposed by the interstate commission for enactment by compacting states. No amendment is effective and binding on the interstate commission and the compacting states unless and until it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the compacting states.

ARTICLE XII

Withdrawal, Default, Termination And Judicial Enforcement

A. Once effective, the compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each compacting state. A compacting state may withdraw from the compact by enacting a statute specifically repealing the statute that enacted the compact. The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repeal. The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the interstate commission in writing on the introduction of legislation repealing this compact in the withdrawing state. The interstate commission shall notify the other compacting states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within sixty days of its receipt thereof. The withdrawing state is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any obligations, the performance of which extend beyond the effective date of withdrawal. Reinstatement following withdrawal of any compacting state shall occur on the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or on such later date determined by the interstate commission.

B. If the interstate commission determines that any compacting state has at any time defaulted in the performance of any of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact, the bylaws or any duly promulgated rules the interstate commission may impose any or all of the following:

1. Fines, fees and costs in amounts deemed to be reasonable as fixed by the interstate commission.
2. Remedial training and technical assistance as directed by the interstate commission.
3. Suspension and termination of membership in the compact. Suspension shall be imposed only after all other reasonable means of securing compliance under the bylaws and rules have been exhausted. Immediate notice of suspension shall be given by the interstate commission to the governor, the chief justice or chief judicial officer of the state, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature and the state council. The grounds for default include failure of a compacting state to perform obligations or responsibilities imposed on it by this compact, interstate commission bylaws or duly promulgated rules. The interstate commission shall immediately notify the defaulting state in writing of the penalty imposed by the interstate commission on the defaulting state pending a cure of the default. The interstate commission shall stipulate the conditions and the time period within which the defaulting state must cure its default. If the defaulting state fails to cure the default within the time period specified by the interstate commission, in addition to any other penalties imposed in this subsection, the defaulting state may be terminated from the compact on an affirmative vote of a majority of the compacting states and all rights, privileges and benefits conferred by this compact shall be terminated from the effective date of suspension. Within sixty days of the effective date of termination of a defaulting state, the interstate commission shall notify the governor, the chief justice or chief judicial officer and the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature and the state council of the termination. The defaulting state is responsible for all assessments, obligations and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination including any obligations, the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of termination. The interstate commission shall not bear any costs relating to the defaulting state unless otherwise mutually agreed on between the interstate commission and the defaulting state. Reinstatement following termination of any compacting state requires both a reenactment of the compact by the defaulting state and the approval of the interstate commission pursuant to the rules.

C. The interstate commission may, by majority vote of the members, initiate legal action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or, at the discretion of the interstate commission, in the federal district where the interstate commission has its offices to enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact or its duly promulgated rules or bylaws, against any compacting state in default. If judicial enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all costs of the litigation including reasonable attorney fees.

D. The compact dissolves effective on the date of the withdrawal or default of the compacting state that reduces membership in the compact to one compacting state. On the dissolution of this compact, the compact becomes null and void and shall be of no further force or effect and the business and affairs of the interstate commission shall be wound up and any surplus funds shall be distributed in accordance with the bylaws.

ARTICLE XIII

Severability And Construction

A. The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the compact shall be enforceable.

B. The provisions of this compact shall be liberally constructed to effectuate its purposes.

ARTICLE XIV

Effect Of Compact

A. This compact does not diminish the constitutional authority of the Arizona legislature.

B. This compact is not contrary to any law or the state of Arizona. Notwithstanding any other law of the state of Arizona, this compact shall govern the interstate supervision of adult offenders.

C. The interstate commission shall promulgate rules and take action consistent with this compact that are binding on the state of Arizona as to the interstate supervision of adult offenders unless and to the extent the rules or action conflict with Arizona statutes.

D. Nothing in this section prevents the enforcement of any other Arizona law that is not inconsistent with this compact.

E. All agreements between the interstate commission and the compacting states are binding in accordance with the terms of the agreement. On the request of a party to a conflict over meaning or interpretation of interstate commission actions, and on a majority vote of the compacting states, the interstate commission may issue advisory opinions regarding such meaning or interpretation.

F. If any provision of this compact exceeds the constitutional limits imposed on the legislature of any compacting state, the obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction sought to be conferred by the provision on the interstate commission is ineffective and the obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction shall remain in the compacting state and shall be exercised by the agency to which the obligations, duties, powers or jurisdiction are delegated by law in effect at the time this compact becomes effective.

§ 31-467.01. Parole or probation violation; retaking; notice; hearing; custody pending hearing

A. If supervision of a parolee or probationer is being administered pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities in this state shall notify the compact administrator of the sending state if, in their view, consideration should be given to retaking or reincarceration for a parole or probation violation.

B. Before giving any notification pursuant to subsection A, a hearing shall be held pursuant to this article within a reasonable time, unless the hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer. The appropriate officer or officers of this state shall as soon as practicable, following termination of the hearing, report to the sending state, furnish a copy of the hearing record, and make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer by the sending state.

C. Pending any proceeding pursuant to this section, the appropriate officers of this state may take custody of and detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period of not more than fifteen days before the hearing and, if it appears to the hearing officer or officers that retaking or reincarceration is likely to follow, for such a period after the hearing or waiver as may be necessary to arrange for the retaking or reincarceration.

§ 31-467.02. Hearing officer

Any hearing pursuant to this article may be before the administrator of the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, a deputy of the administrator or any other person authorized pursuant to the laws of this state to hear cases of alleged parole or probation violation, except that a hearing officer may not be the person making the allegation of violation.

§ 31-467.03. Hearing rights of parolee or probationer

A. With respect to any hearing pursuant to this article, the parolee or probationer:

1. Shall have reasonable notice in writing of the nature and content of the allegations to be made, including notice that the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the parolee or probationer has committed a violation that may lead to a revocation of parole or probation.

2. Shall be allowed to consult with any person whose assistance the parolee or probationer reasonably desires, before the hearing.

3. Has the right to confront and examine any person who has made allegations against the parolee or probationer, unless the hearing officer determines that the confrontation would present a substantial present or subsequent danger of harm to the person.

4. May admit, deny or explain the alleged violation and may present proof, including affidavits and other evidence, in support of those contentions.

B. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved.

§ 31-467.04. Hearings in other states; effect

In any case of alleged parole or probation violation by a person being supervised in another state pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, any appropriate judicial or administrative officer or agency in another state is authorized to hold a hearing on the alleged violation. On receipt of the record of a parole or probation violation hearing held in another state pursuant to a statute substantially similar to this article, the record shall have the same standing effect as though the proceeding of which it is a record was had before the appropriate officer or officers in this state, and any recommendations contained in or accompanying the record shall be fully considered by the appropriate officer or officers of this state in making disposition of the matter.

§ 31-476.05. Extradition; retrieval

A. At all times, duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and apprehend and retake any person who is on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities are required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives are expressly waived on the part of states that are parties to the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, as to three persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive on, and is not reviewable within, the receiving state, unless at the time a state seeks to retake, a probationer or parolee there is pending against the probationer or parolee within the receiving state any criminal charge or the probationer or parolee is suspected of having committed within the state a criminal offense, in which case the probationer or parolee shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

B. Duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be allowed to transport prisoners being retaken through any state that is a party to the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, without interference.

§ 31-467.06. Supervision fee; deposit

A. A person being supervised in this state pursuant to this article shall pay, as a condition of probation or parole, a monthly supervision fee of at least fifty dollars unless, after determining the inability of the person to pay the fee, the supervising agency requires payment of a lesser amount. The supervising parole or probation officer shall monitor the collection of the fee.

B. Seventy percent of the monies collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited, pursuant to section 35-146 and 35-147, in the victim compensation and assistance fund established by section 41-2407 and thirty percent shall be deposited in the adult probation services fund established by section 12-267.

ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES (A.R.S.)

CHAPTER 21. Arizona Criminal Justice Commission

§ 41-2407. Victim compensation and assistance fund; subrogation

A. The victim compensation and assistance fund is established. The Arizona criminal justice commission shall administer the fund. The victim compensation and assistance fund shall consist of victim compensation monies collected pursuant to § 12-116.01 and distributed pursuant to § 41-2401, subsection D, paragraph 14, victim assistance monies collected pursuant to § 31-411, subsection E, § 31-418 and § 31-467.06, unclaimed victim restitution monies pursuant to § 44-313 and monies available from any other source.

B. Subject to legislative appropriation, the Arizona criminal justice commission shall allocate monies in the victim compensation and assistance fund to public and private agencies for the purpose of establishing, maintaining and supporting programs that compensate and assist victims of crimes. Not more than fifty per cent of the monies distributed statewide for victim assistance shall be allocated to the governmental agencies or public officers specified in § 41-2404, subsection A and to the governmental agencies or public officers specified in § 41-2404, subsection B.

C. The allocation of monies pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with rules adopted by the Arizona criminal justice commission pursuant to § 41-2405, subsection A, paragraph 8.

D. If a victim of crime receives monies from the fund as a result of a criminal offense committed against the victim by a third party, the fund is subrogated to the rights of the victim against the third party to the extent of the monies the victim receives from the fund.

Intent regarding interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers

A. The interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, section 31-467, Arizona Revised Statutes, is enacted to supersede, when it takes effect pursuant to the terms of article XI of the interstate compact for the supervision of adult offenders, the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, section 31-461, Arizona Revised Statutes.

B. The state compact administrators shall notify in writing the governor, the president of the senate, the speaker of the House of Representatives and the executive director of the legislative council when the interstate compact takes effect pursuant to the terms of article XI of the compact for the supervision of adult offenders.
